News on NAIA Tournament bids

Working on bringing to Indianapolis. Received bids from Michigan and Lexington, KY.
2017 NAIA Championships will be in Lexington. Collins Eastland Bowling Center.
March 31, April 1-2

Tournament Sponsors: Logo Infusion taking place of Boom Apparel for apparel sponsorship.
Bowlers Store.com returning as title sponsors. Expecting other sponsors to remain on board.

Del Warren requests sponsorship package for Kegel

We are discussing Nick Hogland to become the lane condition manager for national tournament. We are proposing charging admission to pay for service $8 per day or $15 per weekend pass.

Del Warren supports and endorses use of Nick for tournament operations.

Recruiting Rules: Available on NAIA BCA website. Mike Kubacki suggests having USBC cover our rules as written and review with rules committee. We will email signature page on rules to re-read and sign to maintain digital files of pages.

Informed body that we have postponed submitting NAIA Championship sport application pending addressing several legislative issues. SMART money, 24 week season etc.

Website update: Bobby Phillips may update our website or assist in improving website.

Reminder on coaches association dues by October or November and go calendar to calendar year.

Other business: Del Warren said banquet was awesome. Suggests that it may be long. Figure out a way to shorten by about an hour. 6:00-9:00pm will be ideal.

Motion to adjourn: Ron Hergott second Gary Hiday.
